
THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.—The undersigned invite their fellow-citizens to unite with them in celebrating the 6th day of April next, the anniversary of the passage of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Frederick Douglass has consented to deliver an address on the occasion.

Newark, February 16, 1882.

Messrs. E. S. Ray, J. H. O'Fake, P. P. O'Fake, Andrew McIntyre, Abm. T. Cook, J. G. Evans, John Lowery, Adam Ray, T. F. Washington, Amos Preston, Wm. T. Edwards, Rev. I. B. Tenbrock, Andrew Sims, Boston B. Purvis, George Jenifer, N. West, Alvin Ray, Rev. Wm. M. Jackson, H. H. Cook, H. Johnson, J. D. King, James H. Brown, Wm. Blanchard, Andrew Thomas, Adam Smith, Abm. Conover, James Campbell, Wm. De Kalb, R. A. Bolen, H. Neuman, A. J. Haynes, L. Sears, M. Green, James W. Cole, Ira Huff, George Green, Lewis J. Edwards, Charles Ongue, A. Lions and many others.