- I, Ann Moody, being duly sworn according to law upon my oath do depose and say:
- 1. I am fourteen years old and live at 38 Chestnut Street in Newark, New Jersey.
- 2. On Saturday Inight, July 15, 1967, the Chestnut Grille up the street from my house had its window broken by some looters/
 - 3. The police rode by a few times that night.
- 4. I wasn't able to sleep that night. At about 2:30 AM, I got out of bed and looked out the front window of my room.
- 5. I could see eight policemen all dressed in their blue uniforms in front of the tavern. I went downstairs and told my mother, Kuth Moody.
- 6. Together, we went back to the window. We could see the police taking white cartons from the tavern and loading them into the trunks of their two police cars.
- 7. One of the policemen was laughing very loudly as he carried out the white boxes.
