Turner Rallies Support For Newark Elections

By Daniel Roberts

NEWARK, May 25 — The entire Newark Negro community has now closed ranks behind Irvine I. Turner, independent Negro candidate for City Council.

Ward, and his chances in the June 15 run-off are deemed to be excellent.

The middle-class section of the Negro community — who support other Negro candidates in the May 11 primaries — finally rallied behind Turner, who had the backing of the Negro who was already in motion with a candidate of its own.

Posts for Negroes urged by Turner

Councilman Irvine I. Turner yesterday urged Mayor Carlin to appoint Negroes as assistant corporation counsel and to the Economic Redevelopment Committee.

"It is not feasible to think we can thwart communism in this city as long as any minority goes unrecognized," Turner declared. "Appointments of Negroes to these posts will do more good in this battle than anything material we can offer."

Turner also renewed his appeal for the appointment of a Negro to the municipal court
